

Nearly 7000 At Fireworks Show in Park

The July meeting of the Shoestring Strip Advisory committee will be held Tuesday night at the Normandale Playground recreation building, 22400 S. Halldale Ave. All persons interested in bettering the conditions in the "strip" are being invited to attend the sessions, according to George Mercer, chairman of the group.

At the same time, he reported that nearly 7000 persons attended Saturday night's Independence Day fireworks show at the Normandale Playground where traditional fireworks were highlighted by a set piece forming the American flag as a climax.

Activities started early Saturday with Sam Huston and his son, Mike, winning the ham golf tournament in the morning, and Jim Clappett winning the horseshoe tournament.

The show was sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Department, L.A. Fire Department, and the Shoestring Strip committee. Contributions from area merchants and businesses aided in the celebration, according to Y. F. Hammatt, playground director.

Unitarian Minister Returns

Following an eight-week absence from the pulpit at Pacific Unitarian Church, 1610 Acacia, Rev. Richard W. E. Seebode returns this weekend to report to the congregation on the May meeting of the American Unitarian Assn. Following Rev. Seebode's talk at 11 a.m. services Sunday, new members will be publicly welcomed into the congregation by Charles Lawrence, chairman of the board.

In keeping with the custom of lay participation in the service, pulpit reading will be given by James Wilkinson.

Rev. Schatz To Discuss 'Meekness'

"What is Meekness?" will be the question asked by Rev. William K. Schatz Sunday in a sermon on the life of Moses to be delivered at 10:45 a.m. at Seaside Community E and R United Church of Christ, 230th and Ocean Ave.

Second in a series of adult seminars, directed to parents who want to teach the lessons of the Bible to their children, will be conducted at 9:20 a.m., preceding the sermon.
